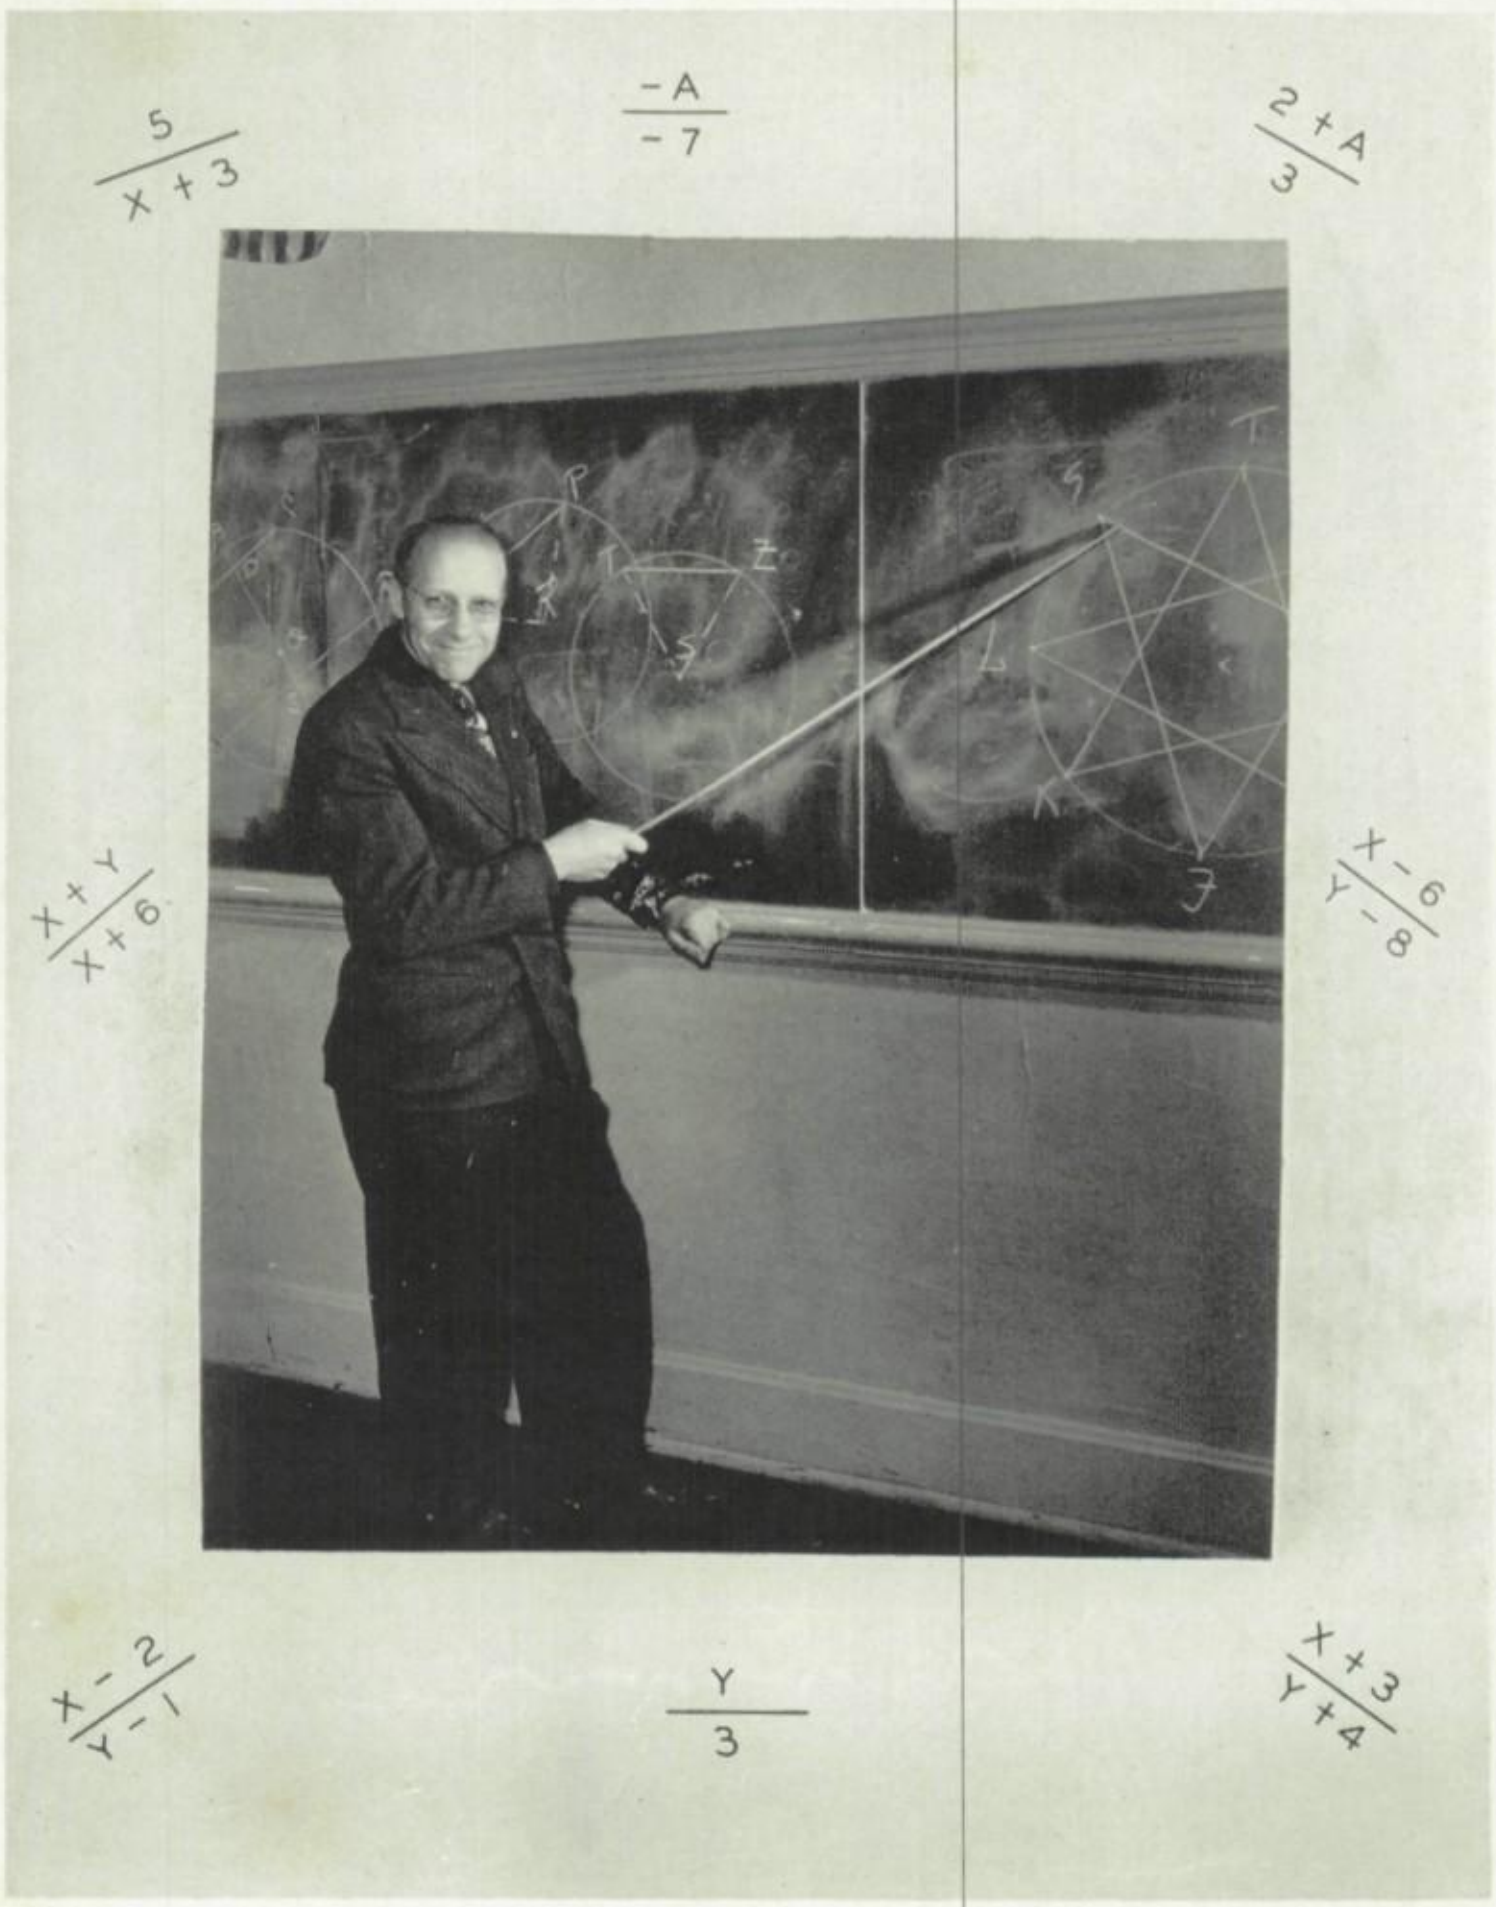
CANTON, ILLINOIS

VOLUME THIRTY-NINE

CANTON
HIGH SCHOOL

Dedication . . .



To the "wanna bet" man, Mr. Albert Millington, who is more than just a teacher, but also a wise counsellor and warm friend, we, the senior class, dedicate the 1951 Cantonian.

Table of Contents

"HOBGOBLIN HOUSE"

"Hobgoblin House," this year's Senior Class Play, is now cast and being rehearsed every night under Mr. Walker's direction. No doubt you have seen plays that have fairly made your flesh creep but here's one that tops them all. For every thrill, there is a hearty laugh. Miss Priscilla Carter is peeved because her two neices have fallen love with two "silly young nincompoops." She purchases the grim old Hobgood house in the foothills of the Ozarks and here in the seclusion of the mountains she plans a safe retreat where the girls shall not see their lovers for at least six months on penalty of being disinherited. And what a mess they get into—ghosts and ghostly doings everywhere. Just as luck would have it, they arrive on the very night that old Bluebeard Bronson, who once committed a murder in the house, is supposed to revisit the scene of his crime. There are some strange happenings on this night, especially when the two boys arrive and dress up like ghosts in order to scare Aunt Priscilla back to town. The boys, after scaring the daylights out of the three servants, are discovered by Aunt Priscilla. Just as she is about to condemn the girls to wait for their money for four years, a number of ghostly manifestations appear and the boys disappear. Bluebeard Bronson, the murderous lunatic, appears and has Aunt "Priss" convinced they should leave when the boys rush in to tell them that they are being fooled and that there is a kidnapped girl involved and Bluebeard is only acting crazy. Not until this is proved does Aunt Priscilla relent and agree that Jack and Frank marry her two neices.

The characters include: The crochety Miss Priscilla Carter, Peggy Howard; the determined neices, Marion, Martha Roberts, and Jill, Elaine Jackson; the two fun loving boys, Frank Harlow, John English, and Jack Loring, Charles Clark; Susan Parkins, Elizabeth Harr, the English 'ouskeeper; Henry Goober, Elmer Brazee, and Delilha Worts, Nancy Goodsell, the two colored servants; old Darius Krupp, the ancient caretaker of the Hobgoblin House, Gerald Harkless; Bluebeard Bronson, the escaped maniac, Jack Andrews; Bill Wilkins, his keeper, Glenn Christy; and then—"The Headless Phantom" who is later found to be Patricia, a missing Chicago heiress, Joanne Hogan.

Class Will . . .

We, the class of 1951, being sound of body, but completely confused in mind, do hereby bestow, bequeath, endow, will, leave and give our worldly and unworldly goods thus:

I, Jack Andrews, will my lung power to the remaining members of the cornet section of C.H.S.'s well known band to be used at their discretion.

I, Marcia Arnett, will my ability to ask personal questions to Tommy Henseler to combine with his inexhaustible vocabulary that he may make himself better understood. (He talks above my head.)

I, Pat Aten, will my petite "figger" to "Pam" Reffett to enter in the "Plow Queen" contest.

I, Charlotte Averill, will my ability to attract older guys to Sharon Witherell who will appreciate the gift.

I, Richard Awl, will my short name to Mariann Pappapetru for obvious reasons.

I, Elmer Brazee, will my giggle to Don Beldin to use while playing the piano.

I, Glenn Christy, will my talent for wrecking the chemistry "lab" to Sue Meyers to add to her own scientific genius.

I, Helen Clark, will my name to our illustrious Latin teacher just "fer" variety.

I, Ray Cleer, will my red hair to Mr. Deutch because his own is wearing out.

I, Carrol Colbert, will my piano arrangement of "Old Dog Shep" to Ruth Ellen Johnson for a dandy companion.

I, Tom Cory, will my nickname "Flab" to Bob Chiperfield who probably won't be able to use it.

I, "Jackie" Cover, will my interest in our most talented pianist to Andrena Susich who loves music—and musicians.

I, Joan Craddock, will a slightly used bottle of "coke" to Gail Maxwell to guzzle during Spanish II.

I, Barbara Anderson, will my short straight bob to "Pat" Greenbank to use for variety since variety is the spice of life.

I, Beverlee Anderson, will my original dance steps to Fred Astaire to use in his next movie.

I, Shirley Azbell, will my slender look to Coletta Walker just to see what will happen.

I, Walter Bair, will my vicious nature to "Peanuts" Yerbic to use in case of emergency.

I, Gerald Beam, will my name to the lumber company to use in the foundation of the new High School.

I, Wanda Bloomfield, will my big baby, blue eyes to Bill Knott because I think they will look "purty" behind Bill's "specs."

I, Billie Ann Anderson, will my ability to make Jack Andrews blush to Sarah "Goldilocks" Shepley who ought to understand the technique already, but may not.

I, Jane Duncan, will my interest in the Gomel Korn Shop to anyone who likes double butter on his pop corn.

I, John English, will my Mortimer Snerd walk to Jerry Collins to use to replace his Jersey bounce.

I, Kathryn Eskew, will my ability to always give the punch line of my corny jokes first to Rose Marie Fengel to add to her already versatile personality.

I, Donna Evans, will my interest in "alum" crooners to Shirley Terpening who approves of them too, I hear.

I, Suzanne Foote, will my wardrobe to Gretchen Soldwedel just to see if the "duds" will fit.

I, Carolyn Bohannon, will my quietness to Monte Rupe who probably won't know what to do with it.

I, Dixie Bolender, will my nose for news to Betty Saurbaugh for traditional reasons.

I, Norma Brown, will my interest in Phoenix, Arizona, to Ardath Adams who loves Arizona, "but def."

I, Linda Bull, will my pleasing personality to "Eddie" Butkovich just for the heck of it.

I, Bob Busby, will my one-time good grades in American History to Junior Spyres just because I'm generous.

I, Martha Clewell, will my neatness to Donna Scott to use when she becomes a real cow girl.

I, Lon Smith, bequeath my peaches and cream complexion and rosy cheeks to Dean Trenton 'cause I think he's deserving.

I, Marilyn Raskauskas, bequeath my velocity in speech to Maxine Pollitt to use for convincing her father that she should have a date every night.

I, Anneta Schwarz, bequeath one well-worn pair of saddle oxfords to Rosalee Clewell to use in strolling down Lovers' Lane with John Griffin.

I, Mary Wages, bequeath my place on the plushy yellow, high school bus to some kid who's too tired to walk to school.

I, Marilyn Smith, bequeath the place taken by my daily letter in the mailman's pouch to Montgomery Ward's who has no heavier correspondence than I.

I, Martha Roberts, bequeath my ten yards of ribbon on the back of Ed Slagle's ring to the G.A.A. to use in decorating next year's homecoming float.

I, Gerald Wingerter, bequeath my purple light house sweater to all the girls in the Junior class who carry torches for the Senior lettermen.

I, Bob Warfield, bequeath my elliptically, cylindrical cranium to "Tommy" Picton to use as a battering ram against football opponents of C.H.S.

I, Joan Fuller, will my "special knack" at playing pool to David Vandermeer because he needs the practice.

I, Maxine Fulton, will my quaint last name to the county; Long may it live!

I, Lora Mae Garren, will my place as a star witness in Commercial Law class to Dorothy Heikes who shone in the jury.

. . . Class Will

I, "Chuck" Clark, will my very decided opinions and line of hot air to John Flahavin and Jack "Einstein" Klobuchar, both of whom don't need these gifts, but no one else will have 'em.

I, Jerry Dearing, will my prized nickname, "Beaky", to Larry Jenkins who is duly qualified to receive the same.

I, Waldo Donaho, will my woolly locks to Norman Brasel who would look so "darling" with all those curls.

I, "Pat" Douglas, will my little camera and a couple of blown flash bulbs to the Cameron Studio for use in taking pictures for the 1952 Cantonian.

I, Betty Downs, will my sweet personality to David Calhoun because he's such an angel type, or is he?

I, "Jerry" Harkless, will my place as class brain and my cherubic countenance to "Roddy" Karmenzind to use in misleading opposing football teams.

I, Eugene Harrison, will my prominent position in F.F.A. to "Buzz" Roeth, the city slicker of C.H.S.

I, Dorothy Henderson, will my osculatory lips to Shirley Howe whose style of applying lipstick is unusual.

I, "Boogie" Henseler, will my extraordinary talent as a seamstress (and I ain't kiddin') to next year's Homemaking I people who will have to hustle to come up to my standards.

I, "Gwen" Hill, will my quiet demeanor to "Dave" Brown who could benefit by the possession of it.

I, Gene Herring, will my intramural duties to anyone who doesn't have anything else to do and wants to take 'em on.

I, Joanne Hogan, will my versatility to Karolyn Woodcock whom I instruct to use the dictionary to find out what I'm willing her.

I, "Jennie" Horvath, will my place as 1950 Prom Queen to Martha Coultas who seems to have the situation well in hand.

I, Alma Hughes, will my "Classy Chassis" to "body by Fisher."

I, Don Kepler, will my middle aged spread, acquired from constant motorcycle riding, to "Gordie" Bohannon with admonitions to watch his step or he too will need to follow the doctor's diet.

I, John Griffin, will my technique to break windows without getting caught to any Freshman boy who wants to live dangerously.

I, Eleanor Harney, will my place as the most generally well-liked girl in the senior class to Joan Hinkle who shows signs of deserving it.

I, Joe Guyton, will my path up and down the side lines of the football field to Charlie Churchill who, as manager of the team, might need it.

I, "Jackie" Hammond will my petite size to "Pat" Kramer which added to her own would make her right tall.

I, Larry Gentry, will my Nordic beauty to "Chuck" Finfgeld to use as a disguise on Hallowe'en.

I, Eleanor Fouts, will my darling little sister, Charlotte, to Neil Swartzbaugh to make a beautiful pair when combined with his kid sister, Deanna.

I, Nancy Goodsell, will my unique checkered glasses to Jerry Slack 'cause I love my seat mate so-o-o.

I, Willard Jump, leave my civilian clothes to Reinhardt Seipel since I shall be in "Uncle Sam's" navy.

I, Richard Kennedy, will my dancing shoes to "Charlie" Walljasper to help him gain speed on the harrier team.

I, Bill Nidiffer, endow Roger Zerwer with my terrific line to use to hang his clothes on.

I, Dale Bohm, will to Terry Buffum my last minute entrances to and split-second exits from classes because I want a new Packard.

I, Carl Brazee, bequeath my rendition of "Feathertop" to Miss Coty to use between the acts of the Junior class play.

I, Jairus Armstrong, bequeath my ultra-modern, air conditioned coupe to Judy Caruso because she must be tired of driving that old Cadillac.

I, John Atherton, bequeath my attraction for underclass girls to "Jimmy" Elwell to use when he's a senior.

I, Donald Edwards, bequeath my position as a son of the soil to M. B. Carver who should be a farmer.

I, Margaret Hayes, give my route to school to Clara Irons because that route goes past the Henseler menage.

I, Bill Kinzer, endow my beautiful sideburns on "Freddy" Downey 'cause he'd need "Vigoro" to grow some himself.

I, Sue Jarnagin, endow my frost bitten ears, gained from sticking my head in the ice cream containers at Roszell's, on Leslie Jackson 'cause his ears are too big to get in a container.

I, Delano Kruzan, endow my motor bike on Miss Harrison to replace "Lulubelle" who is slowly, but surely, disintegrating.

I, Jean Lefebvre, endow my dry wit to Alan Baxter because his fairly drips.

I, Doyle Moore, endow my nickname, "Cuphead", on the Maxwell House Coffee Co. because of its appropriate meaning.

I, Jerry James, will my little black book to John Ellison in case he has a way to get to Denver.

I, Naomi O'Donnal, bequeath my prowess in Bookkeeping II to another one of Mr. Deutch's unsuspecting victims.

I, Jim Kuchan, endow my persistence in carrying an unlit torch on Janet Patterson to see if she can light it.

I, Ray Lukasik, endow my pharmaceutical knowledge on Jon Culton who is already acquiring some of his own.

I, Norma Leathers, endow my last name on June Shumaker for maybe together we can start a thriving business.

Class Will . . .

I, Pat Pearson, bequeath my monopoly on the position as class queen to Anita Cardot to use when she becomes a senior.

I, Gordon Post, bequeath my hill billy twang to Esther Burnett whose very proper English aggravates me.

We, Jean Linck and Helen Hudson, bequeath our beloved boss, "Eddie" Lewis, Jr. to the Biology Club some of whose members also collect butterflies.

I, Agnes Marinich, bequeath my perfect brunette coloring to "Patty" Allaman to use when she becomes Miss America.

I, Lyle Murphy, bequeath my emaciated frame to Jack Threw because I know he'll appreciate it.

I, Tommy Joe Moore, bequeath my place as the faculty's best friend to George Maurice because he bids fair to be as pestiferous as I am.

I, Elaine Jackson, bequeath my interest in Be-bop bands and pianists to Ketric Klingman to diversify the music department.

I, Bob Lindzey, bequeath my garrulousness to Donna Dabney whose quiet and demure mien can stand enlightening (or can it?)

I, Joan Wheeler, bequeath my aloof air to Ruth France whose harum-scarum ways alarm me.

I, Paul Tarter, bequeath my role of a star snooker player to Allan Connor who infests the Pfister all the time and should appreciate the gift.

I, Jim Royer, bequeath my bump of Irish humor which I'm always using at the wrong time to Raoul Reinertsen to use in entertaining Freshman girls, especially blondes.

I, Gordon Roller, bequeath my five o'clock shadow at nine in the morning to Jim Peake, "the fair-haired boy" of the Freshman class.

I, Joan Parlier, bequeath my interest in Norris and Norris residents to all the Canton kids who like to go to the Hillcrest Theater.

I, Mardelle Landis, bequeath my place as Information Editor of the Cantonian staff to Algira Rennicks who likes to spend a lot of time in the office.

I, Kenneth Pearson, bequeath my aptitude in Social Science to Ronald Reith to use when he strikes Civics next year.

I, Beverly McEuen, bequeath my Hawaiian sun tan to Madeline Nibbelin to replace her numerous freckles.

I, "Pat" Moore, endow my shiny baton on Charlotte Irons in case her own baton gets rusty.

I, John Powers, endow my animation(?) on Jim Shaw whose quiet(?) manner annoys me no end.

I, Helen Little, endow my first million, which I made at Kresge's, on Angeline Calogeris so she can be another Barbara Hutton.

I, Gary Johnson, endow my perseverance in keeping training on Jim Sepich who should understand why I'm willing it to him.

I, Bob Nuttall, endow my exemplary behavior in Mr. Zeigler's classes to "Dave" McGinnis to perpetuate Mr. Zeigler's tranquil life.

I, Frances Nebergall, endow my safety driver's sticker on Marcia Kirkpatrick to put on the blue Packard.

I, Jim Kuharich, endow my place as God's gift to underclass "gals" on all the underclass males.

I, Marilyn Kaiser, endow my machine gun chatter on Dolores Bolon so she too will get all the attention in any crowd.

I, Marion Kozelichki, bequeath my resemblance to my handsome big brother to Dick Pschirrer because I want him to be the Gregory Peck of the class of '54.

I, Bessie Potesanos, leave my Buick to Bob Harland so he can get to Farmington and back without paying bus fare.

I, Ed Reinholtz, bequeath my seat in roll room 19 to some deserving Junior who will love it, I know.

I, Jim Roudebush, bequeath my rowdy ways to "Freddy" Linder who is somewhat of a roughneck himself.

I, Jack Woods, bequeath my Hobo Day costume to Milton Ketcham to use next year.

I, "Dottie" Simpson, bequeath my quiet efficiency and dependability to Jane Aten because the contrast will be striking.

I, Peggy Howard, bequeath my well-known blank-expression which I assume on propituous occasions to "Sach" Steach, the Dead End Kid of the Sophomore class.

I, Bill Richards, bequeath my Golden Gloves championship to Willis Mackey whom I deem to be a fit successor to my crown.

I, Roger Riley, bequeath my one well-worn plaid sport shirt to Larry Slack so he'll have something different from his brother.

I, Billy Reed, bequeath my artistic talents to Wilma Spainhour whose ability along that line is unquestioned.

I, Alice Walljasper, bequeath my sweet personality to Mary Zink to add to her own charm.

I, Marge Seddon, bequeath my spongelike capacity to absorb gossip to Betty Saurbaugh who knows a little bit about a lot of things.

I, Bonnie Seward, bequeath my bright blue "specs" to Jo Ann Shepley to use as a spare.

I, Charleen Tovrea, bequeath my air of simplicity to June Lynch, the sophisticate of the sophomore class.

I, Raelene Tink, bequeath my gift of gab to Ruth Arnett to use during a dull assembly.

I, Sherry Rutherford, bequeath my voice with the Umph to Miss Conklin to go with her French accent.

I, Jim Whyde, also bequeath my head of red hair to Mr. Deutch 'cause I want Mr. Deutch to be a long-haired musician and he'll need a lot of hair.

. . . Class Will

I, Rosalee Smith, bequeath my beautiful natural-curly hair to blonde Corinne Brown whose straight locks are a great contrast to my gift.

I, Bonnie Sherwood, bequeath my hearty laugh to Sharon Stookey, the smile-less wonder of the Junior class.

I, Danny Walter, bequeath my deceptively quiet air to "Ronnie" Scalf who is certainly not of the same disposition.

I, Dick Westerfield, bequeath my green eye brows to Juanita Ellis because I want them in good hands.

I, "Liz" Harr, will my character!!! parts to Miss Coty who can use them in future Junior plays. (I like Maude Adams.)

I, Newman McKinney, will my collection of other people's possessions, Detroit Tiger pennants in particular (see Eleanor Harney and Ardath Adams), to "Jerry" Whitehead to use for decorations for his room.

I, Dean Hungate, will my place at the pinball machine in Cardosi's to "Pat" Rakestraw and Jean Polhemus to have and to hold henceforth and forevermore.

I, Jim McKean, will my Louella Parsons personality and Walter Winchell store of information to I-don't-know-whom, because I know of no one worthy of the bequest.

I, Beverly Conrad, will my respect for the bookkeeping teacher to Shirley Hudson who will no doubt cherish it tenderly.

I, Velma McGinnis, will my square jaw to Joe Louis who needs it after that fight with Ezzard Charles.

I, John Myers, will my permanent case of encephalitis to Harvey Wells whom the teachers would like to see sleep once in a while.

I, Betty Perry, will my soft, melliferous voice to Janet "Squeaky" Strawn because you know why.

I, Lucile Pettet, give my unusual height to all the tiny Freshman boys to divide among themselves.

I, Garnet Stufflebeam, will my job as senior office aide to Paris Chockley because I like his cognomen.

I, Juanita Picton, endow Miss Tuttle with my Dad's police car (complete with detention slips for license plates) to use in patrolling senior hall.

I, Junior Schenck, give my collection of striking shirts (they hit you in the eye) to "Tommy" Laurence 'cause they'll fit him so well.

I, Mardelle Roth, bequeath my affection for Hudsons, Packards, Cadillacs, for cars, cars, cars, to Joan Nelson who has a collection of her own including Buicks, Dodges, Fords and trucks.

I, Helen Wefenstette, bequeath my interest in "Fords" (and I don't mean cars) to any gal who wants one.

I, Bill Winegardner, will my privilege of napping in Miss Harrison's fifth period Civics class to Drexel Fouts who will probably be as bored in Civics as I am and so appreciate a few minutes rest each day.

I, Morton Weir, will my guffaw to Mr. Coats who is undeniably the apex of dignity. (I like Maude Adams, too.)

We, the class of '51, will our pet pigeon to Mr. Wildman if he can use it.

We, the class of '51, will our good manners to the Freshmen who certainly need them.

We, the Cantonian staff, will an unabridged dictionary to all of those who buy a 1951 Cantonian so they can understand and interpret the grandiloquent nomenclature and verbiage we have used herein.

We, the class of '51, will our dog-eared, well-thumbed textbooks to the 1951 Homecoming committee to use in the Homecoming bonfire, as the afore-named books are so dry they'll certainly burn well.

We, the class of '51, will our love and affection for the faculty to the Sophomores with the admonition to handle the dears as tenderly as we have.

We, the class of '51, will our powerful intelligence to the Juniors because someone must replace us and we know of no others who are as capable of so doing. (Besides we can't avert it. 'Tis fate.)

Being less sound of body and more confused in mind (if possible) after compiling this document, we do appoint as our joint executors, Sam and "Grandpa," with the admonition to carry out our instructions to the most infinite degree. (Heaven help them in their endeavors.) To this document we set our hand and seal this tenth day of November A.D. 1950.

Charleen Tovrea—A Capitol Caper better known as Miss Hershey Bar.

Bonnie Seward—Secretary to Richard Widmark.

Alice Walljasper—Assistant to Marge Seddon.

Billy Reed—Artist for Hainline Signs, Inc. (He dots the i's and crosses the t's.)

Roger Riley—Still trying to dope out the Pythagorean Theorem.

Bill Richards—Camping out with "Weeds" in that bridal suite.

Gordon Roller—Activated like Shell Gasoline.

Jim Royer—Also activated (whatever that means). Doesn't matter, he's it.

Paul Tarter—Also farming and that ain't hay.

Joan Wheeler—She's still a honey. (Whose honey we don't know.)

Carl Brazee—Successor to Mr. Howard Young. (You know where.)

Jairus Armstrong—Voted most successful loafer in college.

Johnny Atherton—Specializes in combing crew hair cuts.

Donald Edwards—He has taken the place of Montgomery Clift in the hearts of bobby-soxers.

Margaret Hayes—She's added a wedding ring to her possessions.

Helen Hudson—Composer of that famous ditty, "Midnight Melody Makes Me Miserable."

Bill Nidiffer—He turns trucks over for a living (employed by Dodge).

Richard Kennedy—On the vaudeville stage in that nifty sketch, "Kennedy's Kapers." (It rates top billing.)

Dale Bohm—"Bohm, Bohm, Bohm" is his theme song. (Successor to "The Thing.")

Newman McKinney—Still living on his social security dividends.

Dean Hungate—Look what Charles Atlas has done for me.

Jim McKean—A scoutmaster.

Beverly Conrad—Hostess at the Jewel Tea Room.

Velma McGinnis—Tester for Simmons' Beauty Rest Mattresses.

Betty Perry—She's an expert pie baker.

Lucile Pettet—An efficient baby sitter.

Juanita Picton—Also a honey (and again we don't know whose).

Mardelle Roth—Owner of a chain of restaurants.

Junior Schenck—"Poppa's" partner down on the farm.

Helen Wefenstette—P. E. instructor. (P for pretty, E for Elegant.)

The closet in the Brewster living room plays a leading role in this hilarious play about young people and the innocent adults they involve. Besides being a catch-all for the family, the closet serves as a hiding place for a couple of characters who might reveal what the boys are up to.

It all starts when Joey Brewster (David Brown) decides his friend, Pee Wee (Freddy Downey) needs more experience with the female sex. In order to gain this experience, Joey has Pee Wee correspond with "Dear Alone In The World." When "Dear Alone In The World" requests a picture, Pee Wee promptly sends her one of Dad Brewster (Jon Culton).

Meanwhile, Dad and his daughter, Nancy (Betty DeFord), plan a surprise party for mother (Joan Hinkle) to celebrate Mom's and Dad's wedding anniversary. Mom Brewster is led to believe there is another woman in her husband's life.

"Dear Alone In The World" arrives in the person of Bonnie Bates (Virginia Owings), daughter of one of dad's old sweethearts. The boys, frightened by the possibilities of trouble, promptly hide her in the closet. Dr. Phillip Gayworth (Burton Shepard), who is engaged to Nancy, is having some difficulty with a problem patient and is trying to convince Nancy not to announce their engagement till later. He explains that his grandmother (Angeline Calogeris) has a bad spell and he needs to go to her home. This is his excuse to go to stay with the patient. But Grandmother, having ideas of her own and desiring to meet Nancy, arrives and is shoved into the closet with "Dear Alone In The World."

Joey, not knowing of his father's plan to have an anniversary party, invites his girl friend, Minerva Mitchell (Carol Mason), and a few of his friends over to dance.

In the midst of the confusion a policeman (Larry Jenkins) arrives with Elsa Bates (Barbara Williams) seeking her daughter. By the time everything is settled, Mr. Brewster is a nervous wreck and to complete this Mrs. Brewster calmly explains that their anniversary isn't till next month.

The production played to a packed house both nights which was not to be wondered at as Miss Coty had done a "bang up" job of choosing and directing the cast.

Seated: Mr. Coons, Mr. Strode, Mr. Stevens.
Standing: Mr. Welch, Mr. Carmack.

Did you ever stop to consider who is planning and laboring over the plans for building our new senior high school? Did you ever wonder who employs our teachers and other school employees? The answer to these inquiries is the school board. These men sacrifice much of their time to make our school system the smooth-running machine it is.

The members of the school board are:

Oral Strode	President
Gale Stevens	Vice-President
Fred C. Coons	Secretary
R. A. Welch
Fred Carmack, Jr.

Take a bow, school board, for the marvelous job you have done and are doing.

You haven't heard anything until you have heard about the 1950 Homecoming. New Orleans has its Mardi Gras; California has its Parade of Roses; but there sure isn't anything as exciting as Canton's Homecoming.

Something new and different has been added to the usual festivities. You guessed it! the "big bonfire," of course! Here, everyone joins in a wonderful, breath-taking snake dance. Then, the dummy of poor old "East Peoria" is burned in the fire. Yells, yells, and more yells!

But this is just the beginning! Next comes a most magnificent dance at the Y.W.C.A., a sort of "pepper-upper" for the next night.

The next afternoon—I have never seen so many hoboes! No kidding! But finally, the judges chose Ann Raster, James Peak, Ralph Day, and Joan Fuller as the best hoboes of the day. At this big pep meeting, it is really fun yelling with those sweet cheerleaders, Carrol Colbert, Tommy Joe Moore, and Jim Kuharich. They really are in the groove!

. . . Homecoming

CROWNING CEREMONY
Front Row: R. Izard, Crown bearer; J. Kuchan, King; P. Pearson, Queen; S. Maguire, Crown bearer.
Second Row: C. Williams, Junior attendant to king; M. Coultas, Junior attendant to queen.

The eventful moment finally arrives, the announcing of the king and queen. Of course, they are Jim Kuchan, king, and Pat Pearson, queen. Their junior attendants are Martha Coultas and "Chuck" Williams. Yells, and the meeting soon adjourns.

Later, about 4:30, we all run to see the floats and the beautifully decorated cars. G.A.A. wins first prize again this year. (They really have good ideas.)

Here comes more! The big game is next. We even have the band from East Peoria join us. (We didn't leave out anything this year.) Although Canton is defeated, it doesn't spoil having fun at a really super dance to music of "Ebie" Campbell's band. Some band, too!!

We can't omit the people responsible for this gala occasion. They are Jim Kuchan, Jack Andrews, "Liz" Harr, Raelene Tink, Ann Raster, Harold Meacham, Sylvia Kareken, "Bobby" Tyldsley, Don Beldon, Charles Churchill, Sue Izard, Alan Conner, Peg McLouth, Raoul Reinertsen, and Dick Pschirrer. Also, hats off to Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Jenkins, and Miss Anders for their help.

No one will ever forget this, the homecoming of the year 1950.

1950 Hop . . .

Gala! Exciting! Unforgettable! The Hop! Did you know that our big semi-formal dance of the year began as a "Hard Times" party way back in 1915? Well it did, but through the past years the Seniors have changed the name to the "Hop", fancied it up a little here and there and have brought forth something that will linger long in the memories of all who were there. We say "hats off" to Carrol Colbert who handled the committee so capably and to Miss Cagley and Mr. Larson who advised us. Dancing was to the sweet music of Gale Byrad's orchestra in the Elks Ballroom on November 22. Then after a heavenly time at the dance we were off to spend the evening in the traditional manner.

. . . 1950 Prom

"Moonlight and roses
Bring wonderful mem'ries of you."

And of the 1950 Junior Prom, the party of all parties in any school year. The gym had been transformed into a charming rose garden, complete with a rocky, rose-covered garden wall, white picket fence and rose trellises over which trailed deep-throated red roses. There were dreamy music, girls in lovely formals, boys in their "Sunday best" and that never-to-be-forgotten prom atmosphere. Brunette Gordon Roller and lovely, blonde "Jenny" Horvath, prom king and queen, led the other couples in the grand march. What an evening to remember! The advisors, officers, and members of the Junior class could well be proud of their work. That was the Junior-Senior Prom of 1950.

Music Department . . .

Angel voices? No, just the girls' chorus, ably directed by Mr. Klingman. That chorus is not the only angelic one, however. There are the Freshmen and Mixed choruses, too. These three choruses plus the band help keep Mr. Klingman very busy.

There is always one program or another to prepare for. The choruses begin learning their music at the opening of the year in preparation for such programs as contests, the Fulton County Chorus Festival, and the Canton High School Chorus Concert. Each individual looks forward to being chosen as one in the small group that represents Canton High School in the All State Chorus Festival, in which one thousand students perform.

The band also has its programs similar to the chorus concert. Of course, we all know they march at the "home" football games in their snappy gold and green uniforms, and if you attend the "home" basketball games, you know they occupy the southwest corner of the gymnasium. Their sweet music flows from their horns before the games and at half times.

Not only do the choruses enter contests but also many individuals enter the solo feats for which an elimination is held at the beginning of March. Those being chosen in their particular fields will go on to compete in the district contest. If they survive this stiff competition, they are then sent to the state contest, which is a very high honor.

Much credit is due Mr. Klingman for his encouragement and direction of the individuals, the choruses, and band. He is well liked and presents a jovial atmosphere for all those about him. Congratulations, Mr. Klingman!

"B" BAND

. . . Latin Club

Front Row: J. Aten, V. Owings, B. Denham, S. Barker, K. Eskew, J. Strawn, E. Harr, R. Arnett.
Second Row: J. Carmack, A. Raster, J. Lynch, J. Cover, J. Hinkle, K. Woodcock, E. Jackson, P. Moore, J. Fuller.
Third Row: M. Jackson, M. J. Orendorff, M. Pollitt, H. Scrogum, S. Terpening, J. Hogan.
Fourth Row: L. Jenkins, F. Downey, A. Adams, B. L. Perry, R. Tyldsley, J. Woods, D. Jones, M. Bybee, M. Engle, C. Forbis.
Fifth Row: G. Pschirrer, C. Williams, D. Walter, M. Weir, J. Lefebvre, B. Rusnak, S. Meyers, J. Andrews, H. Clark, advisor, N. Brasel, N. Goodsell, K. Pearson, D. Mulkins, R. Westerfield, F. Beechamp.

This year's Latin Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Helen Clark, advisor, and its officers, Morton Weir, president, Bill Rusnak, vice-president, Joan Hinkle, secretary, and Ardath Adams, treasurer, started their activities with a trip to Chicago where they visited the Museum of Science and Industry. Shortly after, the organization decorated a Homecoming float, and plans were also discussed for a Roman banquet which may be held in the spring.

The Latin Club, which has always been an energetic group of which C.H.S. has rightly been proud, is a branch of the Junior Classical Society of Illinois.

Students are required to have one year of Latin to join, and therefore, the club is usually a large and active group.

Spanish Club . . .

Seated, right: V. Owings, B. Denham, Ann Raster, S. Terpening, P. Douglas, E. Harney.
Standing: J. Guyton, J. Kuchan, M. Weir, C. Colbert, J. English, G. Harkless, E. Brazee, Barbara Anderson.

Ignoring the fact that their organization is the youngest language club in C.H.S., the president, John English, and his fellow officers, Eleanor Harney, vice-president, Pat Douglas, secretary, Joe Guyton, treasurer, Elmer Brazee, program chairman, and Carrol Colbert, publicity chairman, have all helped in making the Spanish Club one of the most active clubs in the high school.

The year's activities were started when members attended a convention of local Spanish Clubs at Woodruff High in Peoria, where movies were shown and refreshments were served. Besides trips to various conventions, other activities include luncheons, parties, dances, and a celebration of Pan-American Day. The club is under the advisorship of Mrs. Funderburk, who plays a leading role in making the organization a success.

. . . French Club

Seated: A. Potesanos, E. Manley, S. Kareken, D. Walter, W. Spainhour, R. Johnson.
Standing: D. Calhoun, P. Douglas, Y. Wilkinson, C. Brown, E. Burnett, T. Smith, D. Bolon, N. Leathers, S. Smith, M. Spotser, Miss Conklin, Advisor.

If you are ever in need of a menu interpreter, call upon a member of "Le Cercle Francais."

Though it has always been one of the smallest groups in C.H.S., it has never been inactive. Four very good reasons for its being so active this year are President Danny Walter, Vice-President Sylvia Kareken, Secretary-Treasurer Wilma Spainhour, and Advisor Miss Julia Conklin.

A luncheon, a breakfast, and a contribution to the Save the Children Federation headed the club's list of activities this year.

"Adieu" to "Le Cercle Francais" until next year and "Bonne Chance!"

Camera Club . . .

Seated: T. Calogeris, A. Calogeris, D. Gerrard, A. Carleton, P. Williams, B. Williams, M. Jackson, G. Hughes, E. Burnett.

Standing: F. Nebergall, J. Kipling, B. Blaydes, K. Pearson, L. Hill, Jr. Spyres, J. Campbell, L. Babcock, S. Cowan, H. Meacham, L. Gentry, B. Gentry, Advisor.

The Camera Club is one of the school's most worthwhile organizations.

Under the supervision of Mr. Bryan Gentry, its members show to us the movies which we all enjoy so much.

Kenneth Pearson is president of the club; Francis Nebergall, vice-president; and Angeline Calogeris, secretary-treasurer.

The club also has its finger in the so-called social pie. It's had a dance, a candy sale, a hayride, a skating party, and its annual banquet this year. Who says the Camera Club is stuffy?

. . . F. H. A.

First Row: S. Foote, M. Pollitt, B. J. Gibbs, D. Dabney, M. Walsh, M. J. Henderson, B. Baldwin, C. L. Irons, J. Terpening, A. Morrell, H. Wefenstette, H. Clark.

Second Row: B. Reffett, M. Herring, K. Derrickson, A. Calogeris, S. Smith, T. Calogeris, B. Kitchen, N. Beck, J. Waddell.

Third Row: D. Simpson, A. Hughes, B. Potesanos, N. J. Leathers, M. Kaiser, S. Munson, P. Allaman, J. Nelson, J. Bell.

Fourth Row: P. Kramer, J. Parlier, V. Schrodt, N. Simpson, M. Burton, J. Landess, advisor, B. Haffner, V. Donaho, D. Bear, D. Gilmore, J. Berry, N. O'Donnal, L. Courtney, C. Douglas.

No, these are not the members of the Federal Housing Administration. They are the Future Homemakers of America. See one you'd like to have, fellas?

Under the supervision of a new advisor, Miss Jean Landess, the F.H.A. was again organized this year.

Programs, a Christmas party, and a candy sale were included in the club's activities.

Officers who lead the club this year are: Bessie Potesanos, President; Joan Bell, Vice-President; Louise Rutledge, Secretary; Joann Berry, Treasurer; Nancy Simpson, Parliamentarian; Marilyn Kaiser, Historian; Mary Herring, Chairman of Public Relations; and Tessie Calogeris, Program Chairman.

F. F. A. . . .

Front Row: G. Schrodt, B. Walters, M. Foulk, G. Weaver, A. Arnett, R. Fuller, H. Carrison, B. Hebb, E. Duke.
Second Row: R. Henderson, R. Burnham, S. Williams, L. Weaver, R. Seipel, R. Bull.
Third Row: D. Fengel, E. Harrison, E. Canevit, C. Hedden, J. Wheeler, F. Morrell.
Fourth Row: R. Jump, E. Malmgren, F. Newlun, C. Gray, E. Reinholtz, C. Stitzel, advisor, R. Cleer, J. Brown, D. Carrison, P. Tarter, A. Reinholtz, L. Jackson, R. Coleman.

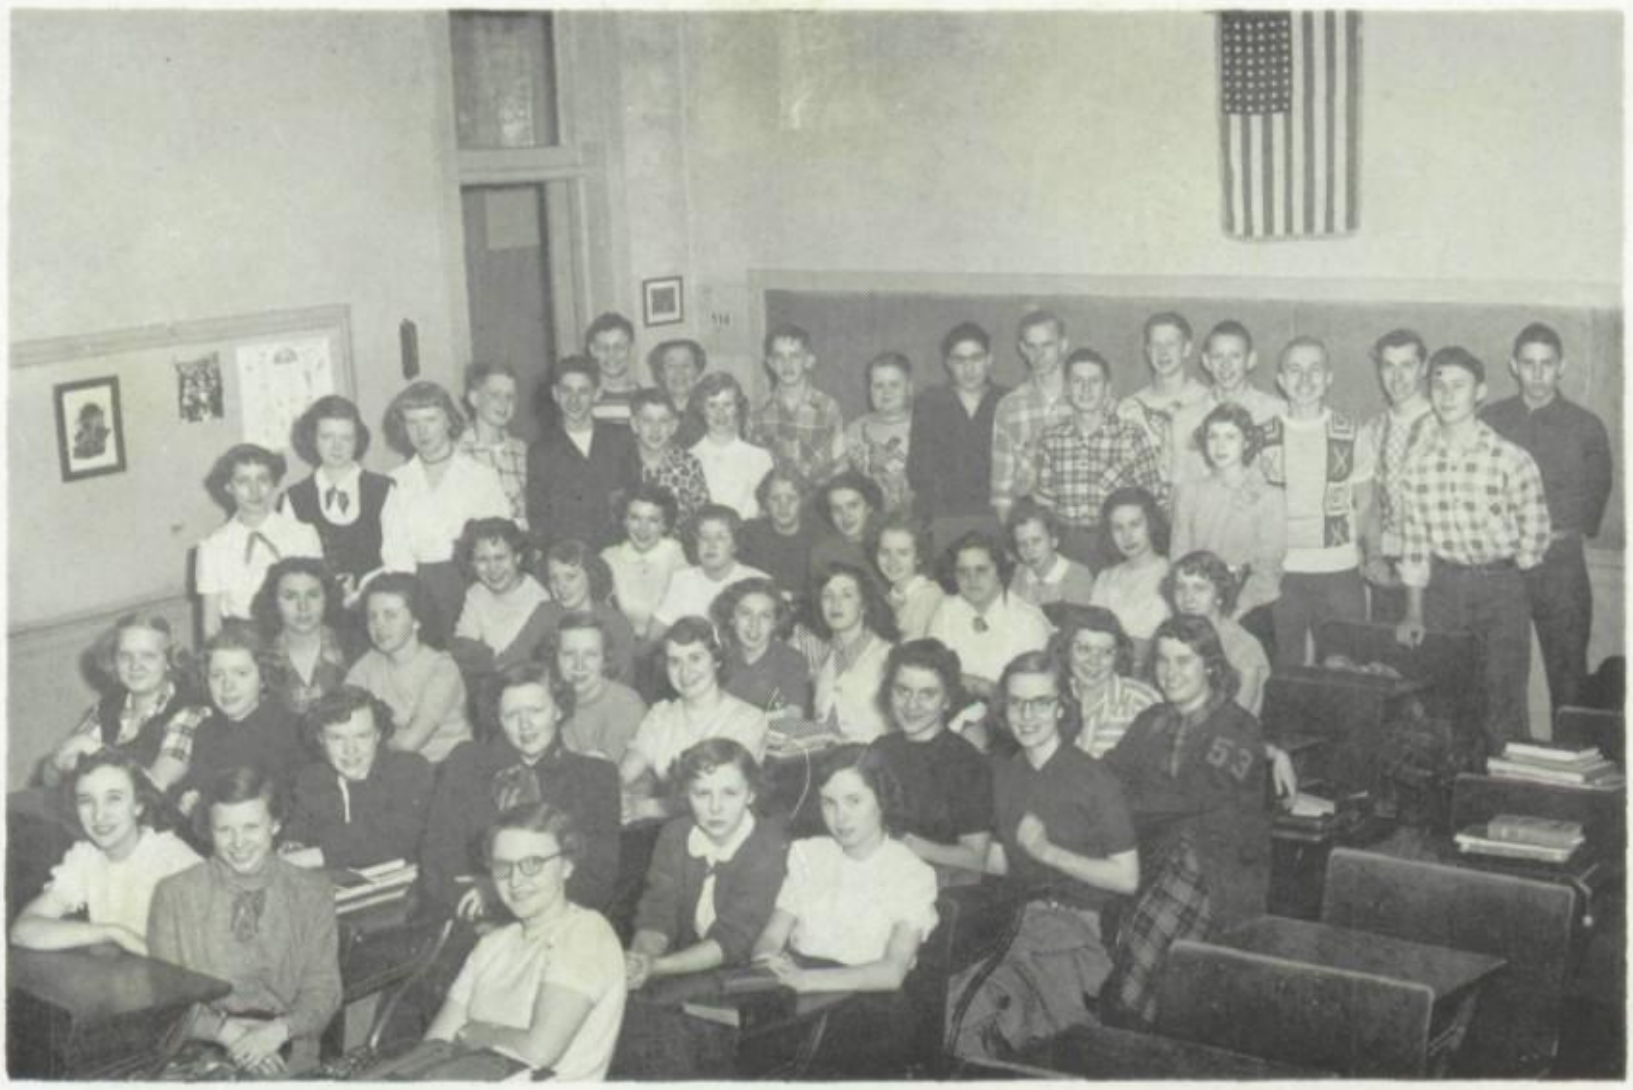
Since the beginning of civilization, food was necessary for man's existence and the farmers of the world gave him this food. Today, greater output is demanded of the farmer, thus burdening him with one of the nation's greatest responsibilities.

The F.F.A. is a group which will accept this responsibility.

The Future Farmers of America, who have many good programs each year, are under the guidance of Mr. C. M. Stitzel, who takes the group on various trips.

This year, the officers are: President, Paul Tarter; Vice-President, Marion Kozlichki; Secretary, Ed Reinholtz; Treasurer, Gordon Post; and Reporter, Ed Canevit.

. . . National Junior Honor Society



Seated, left: P. Allaman, T. Smith, A. Jacobs, J. Tyler, M. Phillips, N. Mickalonis, R. Ash, J. Buffum, J. Kipling, A. Klingman.

Seated, center: M. Pollitt, K. Woodcock, B. Williams, E. Vaughan, J. Woods, D. Dabney, A. M. Ruey, P. Greenbank, E. Burnett, M. Brush, P. McLouth, G. Soldwedel.

Seated, right: C. Sereno, S. Barker, V. Wilcoxen, T. Calogeris, J. Lynch, D. Gerrard, J. Elliott, S. Somers.

Standing: N. Derby, S. Branson, L. Bohman, D. Pschirrer, B. Blaydes, J. Guyton, R. Sharpe, Mrs. Clark, advisor, S. Shepley, J. Lundry, J. Harper, R. Kareken, F. Beechamp, C. Churchill, B. Roeth, R. McMullen, P. Somers, J. Cory, D. Chambers, T. Laurence, D. Parson.

One of the highest honors open to underclass students is to be chosen for membership in this honor society. Only students who conform to the club's high standards of leadership, scholarship, character and service are considered. To be eligible, a Freshman must be in the top eight per cent of his class, and a Sophomore must be in the highest fifteen per cent.

Officers elected for the '50-51 year were: President, Shirley Barker; Vice-President, Norman Brasel; Secretary, Tessie Calogeris; Treasurer, Floyd Beechamp.

Many thanks are due Mrs. Helen Clark for her painstaking guidance through the three years since the club's organization as a C.H.S. activity.

National Honor Society . . .

First Row: E. Harr, K. Eskew, A. Schwarz, W. Bloomfield, B. Sherwood.
Second Row: M. Roberts, R. Tink, J. Hogan, H. Little, E. Harney, B. Anderson.
Third Row: L. Bull, J. Guyton, J. Andrews, J. Cover, M. Weir, T. Cory.
Fourth Row: J. Powers, L. Gentry, J. Harkless, J. English.
Fifth Row: Mr. Millington, advisor, R. Awl, D. Walter, R. Henseler, G. Roller.

You have often heard these N.H.S. people called the "brains", but actually they have attained their positions by hard study, good behavior, leadership, and citizenship.

Each year in the late spring the Seniors initiate a few Juniors to carry on the National Honor Society. The class of "50" chose from the class of "51" nine people, Joe Guyton, Jack Andrews, Danny Walter, Gordon Roller, "Jerry" Harkless, Morton Weir, Eleanor Harney, Kathryn Eskew, and "Jackie" Cover, to be their candidates. This year these people have initiated their Senior classmates who were worthy to share their honor. Those Seniors initiated were Beverlee Anderson, Richard Awl, John English, John Powers, Richard Henseler, Tom Cory, Bonnie Sherwood, Larry Gentry, Wanda Bloomfield, Helen Little, Joanne Hogan, Martha Roberts, Raelene Tink, Elizabeth Harr, Linda Bull, and Anneta Schwarz. At the initiation a surprise event took place; the original nine, feeling that Mr. Millington was deserving of the honor, initiated him as an honorary member.

Here is a little advice to the underclassmen from the Honor Society students: keep your goal high, your chin up and attain the highest and best moral and scholastic achievements, and you, too, may be asked to become a member of the National Honor Society.

The officers who have been responsible for the success of the organization this year were "Jerry" Harkless, president; Joe Guyton, vice-president; Eleanor Harney, secretary; Danny Walter, treasurer; Kathryn Eskew, torch bearer. And, of course, there was the faithful advisor, Mr. Millington.

Standing: N. Jackson, M. Metzger, P. McLouth, R. Clewell, G. Soldwedel, S. Gibbons, S. Branson, S. Shepley, R. Ash, E. Phalen, K. Woodcock, M. Pollitt, J. Andrews.

Seated, First Row: P. Douglas, P. Howard, R. Tink, J. Carmack, Beverlee Anderson.

Seated, Second Row: L. Flynn, J. Kipling, A. Morrell, B. Potesanos.

Seated, Third Row: J. Duncan, Barbara Anderson, C. Colbert, N. Leathers.

Seated, Fourth Row: R. Reinertsen, L. Gentry, D. Kruzan, G. Whitehead.

The Pennant—jokes, wishes, gossip, and various items of interest—this is the C.H.S. newspaper.

Since the first Pennant was published on December 24, 1908, many new and better features have been added. The wartime situation forced the paper to reduce its size; but it is packed to the brim with information. The Pennant usually consists of four pages; but more are made on special occasions.

Mrs. Lillian Hagbom, the Pennant adviser, has made the paper one of the finest in the state today. To back her up Mrs. Crouch handles the all-important pocketbook. To them and their staffs, hats off!

Drama Club . . .

P. Howard, Barbara Anderson, C. Brazee, B. Perry, J. McKean, J. Kuchan, E. Harr, J. Hogan, L. Gentry, J. Andrews, C. Clark, J. Harkless, J. Fuller, Beverlee Anderson

The organizational meeting of the Dramatics Club, with Miss Coty as sponsor, was held in the early fall. From the eligible members (those having appeared in or worked on any previous dramatic performance) the following officers were elected: President, Peggy Howard; Vice-President, Charles Clark; Secretary, Joanne Hogan; Treasurer, Elizabeth Harr.

The purpose of this club is to create an active interest in all types of dramatic art on the part of the student body and the community, as well as to offer a "training-through-doing" program for those who wish to develop their talents in the field of dramatics.

In keeping with this goal the club, under the able direction of Miss Coty, presented three one-act plays during February.

Jack Andrews, John Heckard, Joanne Nelson, Joanne Hogan and Beverlee Anderson appeared in the "Heritage of Wimpole Street." Jerry Harkless, Bill Rusnak, Gene Kingery, and Larry Gentry cavorted in "If Men Played Cards as Women Do," while the third play, "No Greater Love," found Peggy Howard, Joan Fuller, Barbara Denham, Jim Kuchan and Charles Clark cast. The plays were all well cast and well performed and Miss Coty, the casts and the stage crews can be proud of their accomplishments.

. . . Quill and Scroll

Standing: R. Henseler, J. Andrews, J. Guyton, J. Harkless, G. Roller.
Seated, at Back: R. Tink, C. Clark, M. Weir, B. Anderson, L. Gentry.
Seated, in Front: E. Harr, N. Jackson, A. Schwarz, H. Little, L. Bull, B. Sherwood, E. Harney.

Canton High's chapter of Quill and Scroll, the honorary high school society for budding journalists, is named for the Illinois poet, Vachel Lindsay, whose home was in Springfield. The chapter was organized on April 10, 1926 and since then many students of C.H.S. have attained membership through high scholastic standing and work on the Pennant or Cantonian staffs. Some of these have gone on from Canton High to make their place in the world of journalism and some are now studying in schools of journalism in colleges and universities. Membership in Quill and Scroll is a coveted honor attained by the few who excel in both ability and scholarship.

Biology Club . . .

First Row: B. Fair, B. Milhone, M. Jackson, S. Barker, M. Pollitt, M. Roth, P. Allaman, C. Parks.
Second Row: J. Graham, M. Hagaman, C. Woodcock, M. Kruschinsky, A. Roberson, J. Strawn.
Third Row: B. McMillan, L. Weffenstette, M. Henderson, E. Anderson, advisor, J. Lynch, S. Witherell.
Fourth Row: A. Jacobs, J. Tyler, L. Richards, L. Hill, J. Ball, D. Parson.
Fifth Row: J. Elwell, J. Armstrong, F. Beecham, G. Beam, C. Mulligan, P. Azbell, F. Morrell, J. Lingenfelter, E. Bull.

The Biology Club is a very interesting organization for students who are interested in science. Mrs. Elsie Anderson is the club's advisor. The club's officers are: Gerald Beam, President; Maxine Pollitt, Vice-President; Karolyn Woodcock, Secretary-Treasurer; Janet Strawn, Reporter; and June Lynch, Scrap Book.

The club members have entered their various projects in the Illinois Junior Academy of Science contests and have won honors with them. First division winners were: Raymond Lukasik, Microphotos; John Hess, Waldo Donaho, Lon Smith, Bill Brown, Pat Pearson, Marilyn Smith, Jean Millington, and Beverly Bowman, Mammals. Second division winners were: Morton Weir, John English, Jim Royer, Wood Sections; Elizabeth Harr, Skeletons; Richard Awl, Dick Walker, Clearing Skeletons; Dan Walter, Barbara Pace, Larry Cook, Dana Pearson, Charles Clark, Jack Woods, Jane Duncan, Jim Royer, Alice Powers, Bob Fouts, Cavitt Hollis, Gerald Winegerter, Bob Warfield, Larry Walker, School Grounds. Third division winners were: Margie Seddon, Martha Roberts, Spiders; Tom Cory, Bill Kinzer, Animal Maze; Gordon Roller, Pigeon Skeleton; Bill Nidiffer, Leonard Bolen, Dale Bohm, Reptiles.

Who says the Biology Club doesn't do anything?

. . . Librarians

E. Vaughan, J. Berry, D. Bolender, R. Smith, R. France, Y. Wilkinson, D. Bolon, J. Nelson, H. Little, P. Douglas, J. Kipling, C. Brown, J. Duncan, M. Roberts, R. Ash, J. Terpening, S. Barker, M. Jackson, K. Averill.

Have you ever noticed the haggard look on the librarians' faces as they emerge from the library? You'd look haggard, too, if asked such things as, "Who wrote Teddy Roosevelt's Autobiography?" Nevertheless, the librarians are in the library to help you and do so obligingly.

Although there are approximately 8,000 books to keep straightened and attendance slips to be made out, the librarians still find time for potluck suppers and other parties.

Their officers this year are: Rosalee Smith, President; Pat Douglas, Vice-President; Sharon Witherell, Secretary; Helen Little, Treasurer, and Miss Cagley, Advisor.

The Hi-Y groups, which are part of one of the largest organizations in America of high school boys, have long been active in C.H.S. This year finds three Hi-Y clubs organized and active; the Delta, Alpha and Omega.

Membership in a Hi-Y is based initially upon high standards of Christian character, leadership, personality, and other personal traits which the individual displays in the classroom and in public.

Activities of the Hi-Y's usually include sponsorship of dances, luncheons and educational trips, as well as the regular business meetings. An activity new to the Hi-Y's this year will be the election of boys who will represent the various clubs in "Youth Congress," which is to be held at Springfield, Illinois. The chief aim of the "Youth Congress" is to acquaint young men with the governmental procedures of our state.

Officers and advisors of this year's Hi-Y groups are as follows:

Suppose you were asked, "Who gives the highest per cent of the yells at a game?" You would indubitably answer, "The Pep Club, naturally," and you would be 100 per cent right.

This club represents a few loyal students, who try their best to constitute the basis of the yells at a game. They really support our team, until the final second disappears.

Mrs. Gertrude Jones is the person that we have to thank for the advancement of this club. Also, their success is partly due to Betty Saurbaugh, the club's president. The other officers are Betty Thompson, vice-president, and Wilma Spainhour, secretary and treasurer.

Since yells are very important to keep up the spirit of the players, this club should receive a 21-gun salute for its magnificent work.

Created early in the twentieth century to promote interest in the fields of athletics, literature and music, the A.L.M.A. is still going strong; however, now its prime purpose is to save YOU money by selling A.L.M.A. tickets at lowered prices.

Proceeds received from ticket sales are placed in a fund which is used to pay officials and to buy athletic equipment.

The A.L.M.A. is headed this year by Jack Andrews, Raelene Tink, Elaine Jackson, and Nancy Jackson, who were elected by the entire student body.

A.L.M.A.—keep up the good work

Due to injuries and inexperienced players, Coach A. L. Buckner's Little Giants suffered a poor 1950 football season. After winning the opening game against Cuba, the Little Giants were defeated 32-12 by a vicious Peoria Manual team. Ronald Jump and Bill Kinzer were injured in the Manual game and their services were greatly missed the next week when Pekin rolled over the Little Giants 54-0. Then, after battling to a 7-6 edge at the half, the Cantonians faltered and gave way to a powerful Woodruff team which won 32-7. On the road again the Little Giants went to Monmouth where they defeated the Zippers 7-6. Next Macomb was downed by a score of 13-0, but back on the home field the Plowboys lost to East Peoria in a rough and tumble game which greatly increased the injuries. The next game was lost to Galesburg by a 21 to 0 score. By this time the weather had become quite cold and the last game of the season was played in slight snow flurries. In that game Farmington downed the Little Giants 13-0. This brought our season total to three games won and six games lost.

The 1951 football team should have a good season because there will be many lettermen returning from the previous year. Last year's senior lettermen were: Bill Kinzer, Bill Richards, Tom Cory, Bob Warfield, Gerald Beam, and Jim Kuharich.

Canton's hopes of going to state were shattered in the opening game of the sectional tournament when Pekin downed the Little Giants, 46-41. Although they had defeated the Chinks twice during the regular season, the Cantonians were unable to overcome a 6-point Pekin lead in the first quarter. However, the Purple and Gold turned in their best season since 1948 with a 15-8 regular season record and won the Illinois Conference also.

The Little Giants hit their stride in mid-season when they beat Decatur, 49-42; Manual, 66-47; Pekin, 61-50; and took the conference lead by defeating Woodruff, 61-54.

Coach Buckner had a well-rounded team this year with many good players, such as Kuharich, Lindzey, Colbert, Cory, Kinzer, and English. Since all of these boys are seniors this year, there will be many new faces on the basketball court next year.

The cross country team of 1950 did not win a meet this year, mainly because the boys were lacking in experience. The team was made up of completely new material, not a letterman returning from last year due to ill health. The team of three seniors and five sophomores was improving very much and should make a good squad next spring. They had five meets, also the District and Illini Conference meet, both run on Peoria Woodruff's course, one of the toughest in the state. Both meets were won by Woodruff, who had one of the finest cross-country teams in the state. There were two lettermen this year, Gentry and Thompson.

Coach Buckner's track team turned in a very impressive record for the 1950 track season. The Canton lads registered defeats over Peoria Manual, Peoria Central and East Peoria as well as placing second in the district meet where Bill Kinzer and Junior Pintar placed high enough to go to the state meet at Champaign. Also the "Little Giants" placed second in a triangular meet at Monmouth. Because of the graduation of such stalwarts as Pintar, White, Alig, Metzger, Grandys, Tometich, Campbell, Burton, and Smith there will be a mad scramble among newcomers for the 1951 season. However, we're sure the coming season will be successful and the laurels of C.H.S. upheld.

Led by the expert pitching of Colbert, Sepich, Ray, and Derrickson, Coach Harry Smith's varsity squad turned in one of the best records in Canton baseball history. The only defeat of the regular season was by Peoria Manual, who later defeated them in the finals of the sectional tournament. At the end of the season the Little Giants had a record of fifteen victories against only two losses.

The following seniors graduated and will be greatly missed by the 1951 team: Heppenstall, McCracken, McCaskey, Pollitt, Strode, Scrogum, Bogart, and Derrickson.

Intramural sports at Canton High has had one of its finest years. The Intramurals consist of flag-football that starts in the fall. This year flag-football had four teams. The champions of the league were Michigan and all players were awarded medals. There also was a league for boys who rode on the buses. There were four teams and the champions were Liverpool and County Farm, which were all one team. There also was basketball which had 120 boys out and consisted of 16 teams. There was also bowling at the Canton Alleys. There were 6 teams and 6 boys to a team. The Intramural is for boys who didn't try or did not make the high school teams. We, the students of C.H.S., would like to thank Mr. Bill Metzger for a fine job of handling the Intramural sports and molding the stars of tomorrow.

In this, our happy land.
Good sports and loyal, brave and true,
For her will ever be;
Of all the clubs I've ever known it's G.A.A. for me."

G.A.A. is, as you all should know, the Girls' Athletic Association. The fellows say, "What? Girl athletes? They're no competition for us." You fellows would really be surprised.

They have basketball, baseball, volleyball, table tennis, bowling, and badminton tournaments. Letters are received for these sports too. The first year with 600 points a small "C" is given, the second year with 1200 points a large "C" is given, the third year with 1600 points the "I" is given, the fourth year with 2000 points the state emblem, the map of Illinois, is given.

Also G.A.A. girls participate in telegraphic basket shooting and bowling tournaments.

Besides promoting sportsmanship in the different activities, there are also some money projects, the successful Sock-Hops and the sale of Little Giant stationery.

With the help of their advisor, Miss Dorothy Hoadley, the officers for this year, Beverlee Anderson, President, Jean Polhemus, Vice-President; Sue Meyers, Secretary; Donna Dabney, Treasurer; Betty Thompson and Sylvia Kareken, Reporters have brought this organization thru a very successful season

"School days, school days, dear old G.A.A. days,
Tennis and hockey and basketball,
Skating in winter and hikes in fall,
We make the most of every day,
We know both how to work and play;
And we'll teach all to live this way,

Cheerleaders . . .

B. A. Utsinger, A. Scott, S. Rutherford

As Canton grows, so grows our school spirit. Never before have Canton students responded so highly and with such ovation to the lead of the cheerleaders of the purple and gold. We know that our cheerleaders have really done their best this year to make the pupils give all their support to the yells.

Too often the cheerleaders are forgotten among the important students of this school. After all they are as important to a game as the players, for any game would be very dull without cheerleaders emphasizing yells. Surely we should record their names among first on the list in the "Who's Who in Canton High School." These names are: Billie Utsinger, Agusta Scott, and Sherry Rutherford, varsity; Donna Dabney and Bille Jean Gibbs, Sophomores; and Peggy Somers and Wesley Stout, Freshmen.

Kneeling: P. Morris, P. Saurbaugh.
Front Row: N. Mickalonis, P. McLouth, A. Burrows, J. Strawn, M. Walsh, E. Barnett, L. Flynn.
Second Row: M. Hagaman, M. Bybee, J. Kipling, L. Leek, W. Spainhour, S. Payne, B. Thompson, S. Witherell, M. Phillips.

This organization, which holds its meetings every Wednesday after school, is open to all students in high school.

During the fall and spring, when the weather permits, the group practices shooting and learning the proper technique. When the weather is bad, they repair the archery equipment.

The float, entered by the club in the Homecoming Parade, won second prize for the third consecutive year. We hope next year it is a first!

The organization, advised by Mrs. Jones and led by Margaret Bybee, President; Janet Strawn, Vice-President; Marilyn Hagaman, Secretary-Treasurer; and Betty Thompson, Reporter, has had a very successful year. Hats off to this wonderful organization!

. . . Fight Song

ALICE INGERSOLL GYM

Fight for Old Canton High
Fight for the dear old gold.
For you we'll do or die.
As in the days of old.
Fight! Fight! Fight!
Our teams are always best,
Loyal, and ever true.
Victory for C.H.S.!
We'll fight for you.

Here's to our good old teams
Who fight so brave and bold.
Let us all sing our praise
For the purple and old gold.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Fight, boys with all your might,
Show them what you can do
Drive on to victory
And we'll cheer for you.

'Round About C. H. S. . . .
